

NAMES & FACES

Dr. Toni Grossenheider has joined Wellness Concepts of Florida. Grossenheider has been in private practice and has served as a clinic director and faculty member at Logan College of Chiropractic in St. Louis. She is a board member of The Scientific Arts Foundation and a co-author of the foundation's Backpack Awareness Program, educating students on proper backpack use.

Renee Bergman has been promoted to senior human resource manager for the Tampa Bay division of Bright House Networks. Bergman provides human resources support for the employees of the division headquarters, business solutions and advanced broadband services of Bright House Networks.

Molly Turner has been appointed director of marketing for skin cancer specialist Dr. Cary L. Dunn. She was formerly employed by Fitness Quest Physical Therapy as the director of marketing. She will be in charge of coordinating community outreach, media communications and physician relations for the practice's four southwest Florida clinics in Sarasota, Venice, Arcadia and Boca Grande.

Surgnier

R. David Jackson of Lewis, Longman & Walker, P.A., was recently elected to the Leadership Manatee Board of Governors by the other members of the Leadership Manatee Class of 2008-09.

Dr. J. David Holcomb, facial plastic and cosmetic laser surgeon and director of medical education at Sarasota's Institute for Integrated Aesthetics, introduced a new facial contouring procedure he codeveloped called AccuLift to plastic surgeons and dermatologists from across the country at a special expo in Sarasota.

Michael D. Scott has been hired as development director of the Sarasota Ballet. Scott was recently the director of marketing and membership for the Sarasota University Club.

Rhonda Surgnier has joined Matrix Home Care, a statewide home nursing, rehabilitation and disability management firm, as the administrator of the Bradenton and Tampa offices. She has 30 years of nursing experience, including 17 years in home care.

Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine Bradenton faculty members Dr. Mark Coty and Dr. Richard Heibel received the John M. and Silvia Ferretti Award for distinguished teaching during an awards ceremony at the Lakewood Ranch Country Club recently.

The award is presented to members of the preclinical and clinical faculty who have been recognized for outstanding service in stimulating and guiding the intellectual development of students at LECOM Bradenton.

Heidi Decker has been promoted to program director for 106.5 WCTQ-FM. Decker will oversee all aspects of the radio station, including music, community involvement and event marketing. Maverick Johnson has been named assistant program director. Johnson most recently worked part time at the station while serving as executive director of the American Cancer Society of Manatee County.

Drew Brown will serve as the membership director at The Concession Golf Club and Residences. Brown graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in public relations and marketing and worked in guest services with the Ritz-Carlton before joining Golden Bear Realty, where she specialized in marketing.

Donna Scott joins the team at The Concession Golf Club as executive assistant. She has held executive positions with BW Homes and Standard Pacific before joining Kellogg & Kimsey in its project department.

Christopher Erbeck has joined the Lakewood Ranch office of Renee Martone-Cecil, a financial advisory practice of Ameriprise Financial Services, Inc. as an associate financial adviser.

Names & Faces, which spotlights the achievements of business persons in Manatee and Sarasota counties, runs every Monday in the business section. Submissions must be received by 5 p.m. Wednesday for the next edition. Send submissions to Business Editor Jennifer Rich at jrich@bradenton.com.